

I listen to XM exclusively now. It has improved the quality of our lives. I pay for the service, and believe you me, it is worth it. The drivel on regular radio is intolerable. Even NPR can get on my nerves. My husband and I rely on XM now, and respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NAB's petition out right has censureship and restricting fair marketing. This is still the USA and and I hope our freedoms will not be taken away from us.
